

IOWA PRIDE CHALLENGE

The Iowa Hall of Pride Challenge has concluded its community service initiative this basketball season with dozens of schools participating in projects all across the state. Community service award winners have been determined and are listed below with each receiving a $500 service award for their student government program. The top service award winner of $1,000 was Fort Madison. The five service award winners are as follows:

- Fort Madison – Community Dinner
- Central Clinton, DeWitt – DeWitt Referral Center
- Mason City – Crisis Intervention Service
- Griswold – Hoops 4 Hounds: A Fight Against Type I Diabetes
- Fairfield – Carry on Bag Program & Holiday Dinner

The Iowa Hall of Pride in Des Moines sponsored the statewide Challenge, which grew from the Richard Jacobson Education Fund at the Hall of Pride. The Pride Challenge initiative provides opportunities for Iowa students to have a positive impact in their communities through a community service component, while also providing educational experiences for all involved.
